Populistas de extrema derecha pueden causar estragos en el Parlamento Europeo

Los populistas de extrema derecha pueden causar estragos en las próximas elecciones del Parlamento Europeo, causando preocupación entre los funcionarios europeos sobre la vulnerabilidad del bloque de 27 naciones a los estados hostiles que buscan hacer daño.

Los datos de las encuestas indican que los eurodiputados de extrema derecha podrían tener suficientes escaños para bloquear la legislación de la Unión Europea, lo que causaría un gran dolor de cabeza para el bloque en su conjunto.

Impacto en la seguridad del bloque

Si bien este cambio puede tener un gran impacto en la influencia de las personas más poderosas de Bruselas y la dirección de la UE, los funcionarios también están preocupados por el efecto que tendrá en la seguridad de la UE.

La reciente detención de un ciudadano alemán que trabajaba como asistente de un eurodiputado de extrema derecha bajo sospecha de espiar para China ha aumentado los temores de que una afluencia de euroescépticos, figuras antisistema que han vivido en las márgenes de la política convencional signifique una gran cantidad de comida para los tiburones para los estados hostiles para apuntar.

Eurodiputados, un objetivo fácil para los actores hostiles

"Los populistas electos son atractivos para los actores hostiles por dos razones", dijo James Shires, codirector del European Cyber Conflict Research Initiative.

"En primer lugar, son figuras antisistema que no confían en las instituciones o estructuras en las que ahora trabajan. Es difícil pasar de creer en una conspiración establecida en su contra a cooperar con esas instituciones para contrarrestar las amenazas de seguridad", dijo.

"En segundo lugar, en muchos casos hay alineación instintiva con estados como China o Rusia. Están de acuerdo con ellos en ciertas áreas y están dispuestos a adelantar vistas, e incluso difundir desinformación, en su nombre".
